13.18.120 Appeals

In order to determine the suitability of alternate materials and types of installations and to provide for reasonable interpretations of the provisions of this chapter, the building official shall render decisions upon these pertinent matters. The board shall hear matters from those persons who disagree with the building officials interpretations of this chapter. The board shall not be able to grant exceptions for set-down to those structures that are not Type I, II, or III factory-built structures. The building official shall act as secretary to the board; shall receive any appeal of this chapter; and shall forward appeals on to the board. This building Board of Appeals referred to herein is the Board of Appeals created by the International Building Code, as adopted in CBMC 13.01.204

(Ord. 5397 § 1 (part), 1998)
